Ken Nwadike Jr. Presents

Be the change...

A Community Night for Students and Families

September 9, 2021 at 6:30 p.m

Come and hear Ken Nwadike Jr., a motivational speaker who helps students to be more loving and supportive of one another to accomplish life-changing goals. He also motivates and encourages students to get involved in activities at school or in the community to enhance personal growth and preparation for college. This presentation is supporting a community culture that is vibrant, accepting, and overall more cohesive. The in-person presentation will take place at the Peru High School auditorium. We will live stream the event, which will be accessible on our website at www.uwmiamip.org.

Ken Nwadike Jr. is an American Documentary Filmmaker, motivational speaker, and peace activist popularly known as the Free Hugs Guy. Ken is the founder of the Free Hugs Project, which gained popularity as he made major news headlines for his peacekeeping efforts and de-escalating of violence during protests, riots, and political rallies.

Please welcome Ken Nwadike—Free Hugs Guy!
Ken will teach us how to make a positive impact on our community by spreading acceptance and kindness.
