How the mobile food pantries work: neighbors who want to receive food arrive and park in line with the rest of the cars. Our volunteers will make sure everyone is lined up in arrival order. The Food Finders Food Truck will arrive around 10:15 and start disbursing food by 11. To receive food, your car must stay in line and drive to the designated food distribution area. Our volunteers will put food in your car and you can drive off.

FAQ's:	Do I have to be present to receive food?	Not necessarily. You can designate a proxy if you cannot go to a food pantry. This person will get in the same line as the other neighbors and fill out your information when our volunteers ask. However, we only allow each car to receive 2 households of food. This means that one driver cannot pick up food for
	Is there a limit of how much food I pick up?	We only allow 2 households of food per car. A "household" of food is the equal distribution of food on the truck. A household of 1 person will get the same amount of food as a household of 5.
	What information do I have to give your volunteer?	We ask for your name and address, if you are currently on assistance programs, and if you are employed.
	Will you deny me if I answer a question wrong?	No, the only way we deny neighbors is if there are more than 2 households in a car or if a neighbor becomes aggressive in the line.
	What if I don't live in Miami County?	You are still eligible
	What if I received food within the last 2 weeks from another pantry?	You are still eligible
	I am homeless and don't have an address?	You are still eligible
	Who pays for the food?	The funding comes from different community partners like Anthem and The Northern Indiana Community Foundation
